CHR Solutions Ranks #4 in FastTech50 Ranking in Houston

HOUSTON (November 16, 2007) CHR Solutions, Inc., a leading provider of business consulting and technology services, was recognized today as the 4th fastest-growing technology company headquartered in Houston by the Houston Business Journal (HBJ) in its 2007 FastTech50 list. The company ranked number 17 in the HBJ FastTech50 list the prior year.

“Many thanks to our clients for allowing us to be trusted business partners, and congratulations to our employees for all their excellent work,” said James Taylor, chairman and chief executive officer. “We’re delighted to once again be recognized for our rapid growth.”

CHR Solutions also is ranked No. 19 by the HBJ in its list of the largest Houston-area computer network and systems integrators published August 17, 2007; it ranked No. 21 in the prior year survey.

CHR’s vision is to grow within the next five years into a $100 million IT/telecom infrastructure services company providing infrastructure managed services, business process outsourcing, and consulting and engineering services. It focuses on serving middle-market companies in the telecom, energy and bank/financial services verticals leveraging local and global delivery models. CHR expects to grow revenues through a combination of organic growth, cross-selling services, and strategic acquisitions.
